PITTEBURG, July 4.-Pitteburg and New York each scored one victory to-day. The morning game was a battle royal for first place and the New Yorks became pacemakers place and the New Yorks became pacemakers for a few hours by winning in twelve innings. A more bitterly contested match has not been seen on a League field this season and the 12.500 spectators were worked up to a high pitch by the brilliant performance of the men on the field. On account of the size of the crowd a ground rule, which allowed only two bases on all hits beyond the ropes, was adopted. If one of the New Yorks deserves more credit than any of the others for the victory it was Mathewson, who allowed the Pirates an average of less than one hit an inning. The noisy rooting and the earsplitting discharge of firecrackers failed to shake his nerve and in the tightest pinches he appeared to be the coolest man on the field.

in the fifth inning Chesbro, who relieved Tannehill, who was hurt by a drive from Strang's bat, led off with a two-bagger and the crowd was wildly exoted, but subsided quickly and saluted Mathewson when the college boy retired Clarke, Beaumont and "Lefty" Davis on strikes. In the fourth inning with two out, Wagner at third and Zimmer at first a double steal was tried. Bowerman started to throw to second, but Mathewson made a high jump, caught the ball and fired it back to Bowerman in time to retire Wagner at the plate.

After two were out in the first inning Davis doubled and Bransfield singled, then Mathewson made a wild pitch that allowed Davis to secore. In the second inning Ganzel singled, George Davis drew a base on balls and Bowerman sacrificed. Strang's single scored Gansel and Davis reached the plate when Mathewson forced Strang at second. In the sixth inning Wagner tied the score on a base on balls and Ritchey's two bagger. In the twelfth inning Strang, opened with a single to centre. He reached second on Mathewson's out and then foolishly tried to score on Van Haltren's short hit to left, with the result that he was caught at the plate. Chesbro intentionally gave Selbach abase on balls. McBride sent a single to right and Van Haltren scored. Hickman hit to Wagner, who forgot to touch third for a force and then made a bad throw to first, scoring Selbach. Ganzel's double to right sent McBride in. The Pittsburgs were three runs hehind when they went to bat, Beaumont doubled and Davis walked. Bransfield forced Beaumont at third. George Davis couldn't handle Wagner's hit and the bases were filled. "Lefty" Davis scored when Ritchey forced Bransfield at third. A balk by Mathewson

CHICAGO, July 4,—Chicago won two games from Brooklyn to-day, the first by a score of 5 to 3 and the second by 10 to 9. Both games were close enough to be interesting, but were not well played. COMMANDO EASILY BEATEN.

THE PARADER CAPTURES THE LAW RENCE REALIZATION STAKES. -Fly Wheel Takes the Double Event -Gold-smith Buled Out of Second Place -Twenty-

ave Thousand Persons at the Track. Commando, considered by turfmen as the champion three-year-old of the year; the champion three-year-old of the year; the great son of Domino and Emma C, which had suffered only one defeat in his career as a racing thoroughbred, and a favorite so strong in popular favor that the layers would not offer more than i to 5 at post time, was vanquished at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon in a manner that astounded 25,000 men and women who went to the track almost convinced that James R. Keene's horse would prove invincible in the rich Realization Stakes. Commando was beaten by Richard T. Wilson, Jr.'s, crack colt, The Parader, by Longstreet—Pretence, which was looked upon as the second best horse in the race. The Parader conceded five pounds to Commando and beat him easily by two lengths.

Many explanations were offered for the defeat of the noted Domino colt. Spencer, who rode him, was complimented by some who said he could not have used better judgment, while others criticised him quite severely on the ground that he never should have held Commando so long in check. Then ment, while others criticised him quite se-verely on the ground that he never should have held Commando so long in check. Then again it was freely asserted that Commando was not only short of a race, but never should have been started. The fact that he wore par plates on his fore feet was partial eviience, it was said, that the colt was not exactly fit.

The heaviness of the track, the surface of which was covered with sticky mud, was another reason ascribed, but whatever the cause of the downfall was does not alter the fact that The Parader ran a great race and was superbly ridden by Patsy McCue, the boy who created so much talk last year by dioting Kinley Mack to victory in both the Brooklyn and Suburban handicaps. The Parader covered the mile and five furlongs in 2:40 4-5, which was 1 2-5 seconds slower than the track record, made by The Friar, with 115 pounds, in July, 1897.

It was & o'clock when the horses assembled in the paddock. The fact that Commando, and not Conroy, was to represent the Keene stable, set the great crowd on edge. From stable to grand stand there was one opinion-that Commando would win and win with ease. In the jammed betting ring the crafty layers were ready to discourage the propensity to back the Keene colt, for when the betting began they chalked up 1 to 4. But the sure-thing bettors jumped at this offer so rapaciously that I to 5 was soon prevalent and even 1 to 8. The Parader opened at 5 to 1, but went up a point, there being plenty of 1 to 2 in the place books against

TROTTING AND PACING.

First Day of the Gentlemen's Driving and Field Club Meeting.

LONG BRANCH, July 4.- The first day of the inaugural meeting of the Gentlemen's Driving and Field Club of Monmouth County at Elkwood Park was a great success in point of attendance as well as in the quality of the races. The 2:15 trot, a one-mile dash, was warmly contested from start to finish, the hree horses going to the half almost neck. three horses going to the half almost neck, and neck. At that point Nellson and King Rene, Jr, drew away, and in a driving finish down the stretch Nellson won by a neck Moth Miller had an easy thing in the free-for-all pace, but when the dusty Speedway favorite attempted to beat 2:10 to wagon, he ran up against a snag. He was sent a good half-mile at speed before he started on his journey, and when he reached the half in 1:07 his speed left him, and try as he would he could do no better than finish the mile in 2:243. Dr. Kane drove his old Speedway favorite, Little Gem, now owned by C. McCue, of Lakewood and made a splendid race, Summaries:

IN STADIUM AT BUFFALO.

Winner Finished Fresh After Competing in Ten Events -Dan Reuss Again Second -Gunn Secures 4 First, 2 Second and S Third Places - Mellor Wins the Marathon. BUFFALO, July 4 .- Adam Gunn, a sturdy German youth attached to the Buffalo Y. M. C. A., won the all-around championship of the Amateur Athletic Union in the Stad-A. C., New York, who was second last year to Harry Gill, the Canadian, was the only one of six contestants who pressed Gunn at any stage of the contest. Of the ten events Gunn secured four firsts, two seconds and three onds and one third. In the closing event, the mile run, Gunn skipped away from Reuse and Hall, proving his endurance by running in laughing two city blooks ahead of Reuss, who was quite exhausted. The weather was perfect for the games. The sky was bright, event, when a slight shower cooled the 4,000 spectators. Handicap events preceded the championship, but they caused little ex-

Much interest was attracted to the Marathon race, in which six men started. The first mile was run over the Stadium track, then twenty-three miles over the roads to LaSalle, down the Niagara River, returning and finishing one mile on the track. Sam Mellor, Jr., of the Hollywood Inn A. C. of Yonkers came in far ahead of the rest. His time was 3 hours 16 minutes 391-5 seconds. The others came straggling in all through the afternoon. Myer Prinstein's name was scratched from the programme for the allaround, which left the six competitors as follows:
